

A philosophy of ministry is a set of unalterable principles that determines how you will function in your ministry. Simply stated, your philosophy of ministry defines why you do what you do. A biblical philosophy of ministry is a set of non-negotiable biblical principles that guides all the choices and decisions in your ministry.

All the ministries at Christ Bible Church are guided by biblical principles. These ministries put into practice our commitment to the sufficiency of Scripture and its authority for our lives. They are an avenue to practice the "one another's" of Scripture. They are not intended to replace corporate worship.

The non-negotiable biblical principles that guide all our ministries are:

- "make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I commanded you" (Matt 28:19-20)
- "the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ" (Eph 4:12)
- "so that with one accord you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Rom 15:5-6)
